Can we expect some response from TOS addressing the serious accusations that have been leveled at its owners this week? I have long endorsed this magazine to the more than 100 families in my homeschool group and as the group leader, I feel some responsibility to retract that endorsement if TOS isn't going to deal with this issue honestly and publicly.

Tiffany Millen I asked the exact same question and the answer is this - the younger David Gibbs was the mutually agreed upon mediator between the two parties. Neither Gibbs has been retained by TOS to represent them. Another smart move on their part in my opinion. In my mind, David Gibbs is synonymous with "guilty as charged." I will be very surprised if they don't start taking these posts down.
